Contact email: ymolinero@comillas.edu

The Research Committee 32 “International Studies, Area Studies and Globalisation” of the Spanish Federation of Sociology aims to facilitate communication, expand networks, and provide a forum for intellectual exchange and debate between researchers, academics, professors, and practitioners from different disciplines of the social sciences and humanities. Although we belong to the Spanish Federation of Sociology, we understand our space as a multidisciplinary environment, open to a diversity of theoretical and methodological approaches that address issues with a transnational dimension.

For the XIV Spanish Congress of Sociology we are looking for papers and/or thematic panels that fall into one of the following areas:

- International Relations*
- Cultural and Geopolitical Area Studies*
- Global Transnational Processes*
- Theories, Paradigms, Perspectives and/or Dialogues on the International*
- Inter-regional and Trans-regional Dynamics*

- Global-Historical Analyses
- International Political Economy
- Comparative Case Studies
- Security, conflicts, wars, and peace processes

Paper proposals should be in the format of research notes or studies with specific reference to research objectives, hypotheses, methodology, discussion of results. Authors are requested to indicate the thematic area of their proposal.

The Working Group may also hold joint thematic sessions with other groups. Proposals in English, Spanish and French are welcome. Some sessions will be exclusively held in English or French. Some sessions will also be organized ONLINE, thus remote participation is possible (the coordination team of the working group will be responsible for selecting the papers and organizing the round tables to be held in this modality).

We also encourage all participants to become members of our Committee, to follow our Twitter profile (@EstudiosArea), to visit our youtube channel and to check our website where we post weekly news.
